Colt Single LED Wall Light by Bert Frank

The Colt Single wall light has an asymmetric look, maintaining the Bert Frank aesthetic that upholds subtle quirkiness. The wall lamp is made from brushed brass and features a grill pattern that is inspired by British engineering and vintage cars. It also features an arm that is angled, holding the lampshade either to the left-hand side or the right-hand side.

The two versions means you can find the right fit for your space depending on the orientation of your interior or you could even buy both versions to have as a pair on the wall. Useful for offices, bedrooms, dining rooms, hallways and more, the Colt Single wall lamp will add a classic touch whilst providing an effective and diffused glow.
