Colt Double LED Wall Light by Bert Frank

The Colt Double wall light is part of the Colt collection, designed by Bert Frank. The double wall lamp is made from brass, having a refined and elegant look that is also reminiscent of Art Deco. The grilled pattern on the lampshades were inspired by the front of classic cars, being a testament to British engineering at its best.

The Colt Double wall light has two lampshades that sit at angles from each other and have integrated LED light sources that are effective and long-lasting. You can choose between a left-hand or right-hand version to get the right orientation for your space and the wall light can easily be used alone or in multiple for a satisfying and ambient glow.
