Designer: Patrick Norguet

Lodes JIM Bell Pendant

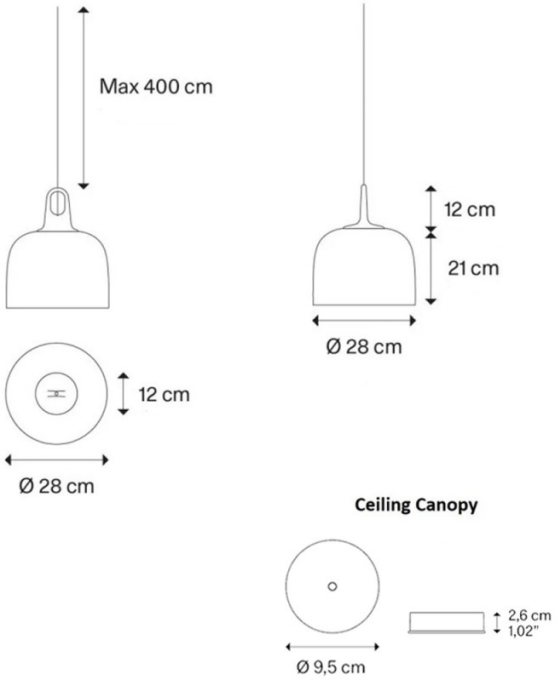

The JIM Bell pendant was designed by Patrick Norguet exclusively for Lodes. Inspired by early 20th-century lampshades that were used in artistic working studios, the pendant features smooth lines, taking on the silhouette of a bell for a satisfying, sleek appearance. The shade, which is available in a Matte Black or Matte Champagne finish, is made from metal, contrasting with the Grey or Honey-coloured methacrylate hook.

When illuminated, the JIM Bell pendant produces a wide beam of light, diffused into a soft and glare-free glow. This directed lighting is perfect for illuminating surfaces while creating a cosy and welcoming environment. Display as a singular pendant or in clusters with other pendants from the JIM Collection for a unique composition.

The JIM Bell pendant light comes with a white standard ceiling canopy as standard. Mini and recessed canopies in alternative colours are available, as well as a multiple ceiling canopy for large configurations. Please contact us for more information and prices.
