Bert Frank Eos Table Lamp

The Eos Table Lamp by Bert Frank is a testament to British craftsmanship, combining luxurious materials with time-honoured manufacturing techniques. Inspired by the elegance of classic chalices, this table lamp showcases a refined mix of brushed brass or antique brass and a frosted glass globe, meticulously crafted in England. The Eos Table Lamp is designed to elevate any space, whether placed on a side table, desk, or bedside. With a mains-dimmable feature, it offers versatility in light control, adapting seamlessly from soft, ambient illumination to brighter task lighting.

Handcrafted using sand-casting methods and precision CNC machining, the Eos lamp's textured brass contrasts beautifully with the smooth frosted glass, adding depth and visual interest to any interior. Bert Frank's attention to detail ensures this piece is not only a functional light source but a decorative piece that embodies elegance and longevity. Choose from finishes in brushed, antique, or dark bronze to complement various interior styles, and experience the harmony of form and function with the Eos Table Lamp.
