Artemide Pirce Mini Suspension

The Pirce Mini Suspension is a sculptural and contemporary design by Giuseppe Maurizio Scutellà. The suspension is characterised by its elegant silhouette and twisting form that adds a decorative presence to any space, even when not in use. The Pirce Mini Suspension is a smaller version of the Pirce Suspension, designed to suit smaller spaces or be installed in clusters with the larger pendant for captivating compositions.

When illuminated, the slim discs reflect and refract light for alluring lighting effects. This display of light and shadow is perfect for creating intimate lighting and a cosy ambience in a dining room. The suspension's flowing form appears differently depending on the angle it's viewed, offering a unique perspective for its audience. Display with other pieces from the Pirce Collection for a sophisticated and cohesive theme throughout the home.
