Marset Ledtube R LED Wall Light

Synonymous with the brand for its utilitarian functionality and ability to blend seamlessly into any space, Ledtube by Marset is iconic today as it was 10 years ago upon its release. As a headboard light, Ledtube R was designed to ergonomically friendly, sleek and minimal, as well as being an intuitive light to interact with. The central tubular piece comes away from its frame to be angled in a way that best suits the user, the light turns on when opened and turns off again when closed back.

Marset Ledtube R is ideal for bedrooms in both residential and hospitality spaces, the design blends well into any setting to give the user comfort and aid as a reading light.
