&Tradition Utzon JU1 Pendant

The Utzon JU1 Pendant is an early design by Danish architecture legend Jørn Utzon. Utzon's fascination with shapes in the nautical world, and the way light interacts with these shapes influenced many of his designs. This influence is seen in the Utzon Pendant, which echoes the appearance of a lighthouse, a series of waves, and the sails of a ship. When illuminated, the pendant's concentric panels create a play of light and shadows, constructed to disperse light with calculated precision.

Display the Utzon JU1 Pendant in a dining room or kitchen for a strong, architectural presence that adds a welcoming atmosphere through ambient lighting. Install individually or in rows above a work surface or kitchen island for functional light that evenly illuminates the surface below. To commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the completion of the Sydney Opera House, &Tradition has released a special edition of the Utzon Pendant in Blue Steel. Blue Steel is Jørn Utzon's favourite shade and pays homage to the iconic design of the Sydney Opera House.
