Verpan Fun 0DM Suspension Light

The Verpan Fun 0DM Suspension Light is an iconic design, regarded as one of Verner Panton's greatest masterpieces. This glamorous ceiling lamp creates a generous outpouring of light through its delicate seashell discs. Panton's desire for this ceiling light was for it to have 'optimal effect', combining light, movement and sound. The cascading discs not only provide a stunning visual feature but also interact with the environment. As air circulates within the space, the seashell discs gently sway and create a chiming sound, a feature that has become iconic within this design.

As striking now as it was 50 years ago, the Verpan Fun 0DM is crafted to "positively influence your wellbeing" as it interacts with the space around it. Its elegant structure is perfect for creating a lasting impression in an entrance hall. Alternatively, install above a dining table for a comfortable and welcoming ambience as well as a glamorous focal point.
