Secto Atto 5000 LED Pendant Light

The Secto Atto 5000 LED Pendant Light is a compact yet sophisticated luminaire that embodies the best of Scandinavian design. Its elegant slatted structure, crafted from sustainably sourced birch, casts a warm and even light, creating a relaxing atmosphere in any setting.

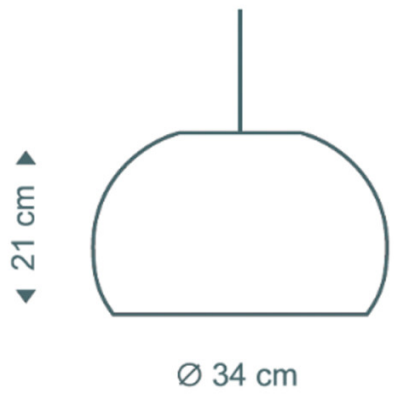

Incorporating the latest LED technology, the Atto 5000 ensures energy efficiency and longevity, delivering a powerful yet ambient glow at 3000K. Available in four stunning finishes, natural birch, black laminated, white laminated, or walnut veneer, the Atto 5000 complements a variety of interiors. Its compact size and striking design make it perfect for dining tables, living rooms, and commercial spaces like boutique restaurants and hotels.

The Atto 5000 comes with a 180cm textile cable and a matching ceiling cup for seamless installation. Pair it with other Secto designs to create a cohesive lighting scheme or let it shine as a standalone feature.

Please Note: The Secto Atto 5000 LED Pendant Light in Birch, White and Walnut is supplied with a white cable and ceiling cup as standard, while the Black finish is supplied with a black cable and ceiling cup. A DALI-compatible version is available on request. Please contact us for further information.
