Fontana Arte Parola Floor Lamp

The Fontana Arte Parola Floor Lamp, designed in 1980 by the celebrated duo Gae Aulenti and Piero Castiglioni, is a striking example of the seamless fusion of artisan craftsmanship and industrial innovation. Showcasing three distinct glassworking techniques, this lamp features a transparent bevelled glass base, a sleek borosilicate glass stem, and an opaline blown glass diffuser. Available in amber or white finishes, its minimalist and elegant silhouette makes it a versatile addition to any space, from contemporary living rooms to refined office interiors.

Providing a soft, ambient glow, the Parola Floor Lamp is ideal for creating inviting atmospheres in reading corners, bedrooms, or open spaces. Its integrated dimmer offers adjustable lighting, allowing you to tailor the brightness to suit your mood or activity. Finished with a braided black-and-white fabric cable, this lamp combines timeless aesthetics with functional sophistication, embodying the lasting legacy of Fontana Arte's design philosophy.
