Axolight Mountain View Pendant

The Mountain View Pendant by Dima Loginoff is a beautifully elegant luminaire. An expression of artistry and inspired by nature, the pendant captures the majesty of a grand mountainscape enclosed in a delicate-looking bell. Each pendant is expertly crafted from transparent blown glass by a master artisan and is available in Crystal, Grey, Amber, and Brown. The ceiling canopy is available in Gold, Chrome, and Black Polished Nickel, allowing you to find a colour combination that perfectly matches your style. Since its conception, the Mountain View Pendant has gained worldwide notoriety, winning “Best of Year Award 2015” by Interior Design Magazine and the “Best of the Year Award 2016” by Elle Decoration Russia.

Its precious and refined personality makes the Mountain View Pendant a decorative statement piece, even when not in use. When illuminated, the glass mountainscape refracts light, creating a mesmerising play of light and shadow. The glass dome softens light for a warm and comfortable ambience. Display above a dining table or in the centre of a sitting room to create a dynamic focal point that will leave a lasting impression. With a maximum drop height of 250cm, the Mountain View Pendant can be hung at a low installation to allow viewers to appreciate the details in the glass.
