Astro Ascoli Floor Lamp

The Astro Ascoli Floor Lamp is a sleek, contemporary standing light designed with the same clean geometry and functionality that defines the wider Ascoli collection. Its slim vertical form and adjustable spotlight head make it an elegant choice for living rooms, bedrooms, or reading corners where directional light is needed.

Equipped with a tilting and rotating head, the Ascoli Floor Lamp allows you to focus light exactly where you need it, whether for reading, task lighting, or highlighting features of your space. A convenient in-line switch along the cable provides simple on/off control, while its compatibility with GU10 lamps means you can tailor the light quality to your preference.

Available in finishes including matt black, bronze, and textured white, this floor lamp integrates effortlessly into a wide variety of interiors. Crafted from durable mild steel, it pairs robust construction with understated style, making it a versatile choice for both residential and hospitality environments.
