PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Lluís Porqueras

Marset Funiculi Fabric Floor Lamp

From the original 1979 design by Lluís Porqueras, Funiculi had featured a fabric coned diffuser to create a warm ambiance as well as functional downlighting, this was a classic atypical look at that time. Porqueras was known for his utilitarian design, stripping back everyday objects of the unnecessary flourishes, returning to their basic function. Marset has reintroduced this original edition of Porqueras's Funiculi collection, updating the classic piece to a sleek and modern design for contemporary homes. Funiculi takes its name from the term funicular, the act of moving up and down, this is embodied in the lamp's main feature of moving up and down the central pole to control the light source. Marset Funiculi floor lamp includes a rubber rimmed base to protect the surface it sits on and provide further stability.

Funiculi by Marset is available in 2 diffused shade colour options and comprises of a matching wall and table lamp. This modern reintroduction was made for creating a welcoming atmosphere as well as being suitable for reading and detailed tasks.
