Mantis BS5 Mini LED Wall Light by DCW éditions

A part of the Mantis collection, the Mantis BS5 Mini wall lamp is the small version of the Mantis BS5 which was first designed in 1951 by Bernard Schottlander. The lampshade has a unique shape, with curved lines that point the glow downwards, spreading out towards the ground. The wall light gets its name from the praying mantis, as the arm and lampshade resemble the creature.

The Mantis BS5 Mini wall light is suitable for many settings and is equipped with a movable shade so you can direct the light where needed. Available in a black satin finish, this wall light can be used for many interiors and design schemes and will add a classic touch to your décor.
