Kartell Space Table Lamp

The Space table lamp was designed by Adam Tihany for Kartell. Adam was inspired by Seattle's landmark, the Space Needle; at 184m high, the observation tower is the tallest structure west of the Mississippi River.

As such the Space table lamp has a futuristic design, in 4 metallic finishes that add to the industrial and contemporary look. The lamp is rated for indoor use, although the Space is available in an outdoor version. Please contact us for further information and pricing.

Kartell Space table lamp can be recharged using a simple electricity socket, and it can operate autonomously for up to 8 hours. Simply gently touch the top of the dome to switch on. The chrome-finish version can also be used outdoors.
