Flos Bellhop LED Floor Lamp

The Flos Bellhop LED Floor Lamp was a 2021 addition to the Flos Bellhop collection designed by Edward Barber and Jay Osgerby. This floor lamp has a streamlined and simple design, with a slim aluminium stem that holds an opal glass diffuser which directs the light upwards whilst also providing a soft glow. The base is made from concrete, creating an interesting and intriguing aesthetic.

The Bellhop LED Floor Lamp can be used in many settings and is suitable for homes, offices, and professional and commercial spaces. You can choose from a brick red, green or black base colour to find the right look for your space. The floor light also comes with a dimmer switch so you can create the exact ambience you need, and with an integrated LED light source, this light is long-lasting and effective. A modern and contemporary light fixture that will benefit any interior.
