PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Giancarlo Mattioli

Artemide Nessino Table Lamp

The smaller version of the classic Nesso Table Lamp, the Artemide Nessino Table Lamp was designed by Giancarlo Mattioli in 1967, and met the same success as its predecessor. A minimalist design that still gives recognition to the 1960s vibes, the diffuser and body are both in polycarbonate with a curved silhouette. The light source is projected down onto the surface below, whilst the slightly opaque silhouette also allows a subtle glow to escape through the shape.

The Nessino Table Lamp, with a smaller body than the Nesso, fits just about everywhere in your home and is available in a range of finishes, all of which validate its bold statement. Available in a choice of Orange, Red, White, Blue, Light Blue, Green, Yellow, Black and Lavender options, as well as the new-for-2026 Ruby Red, chosen in collaboration with Danese Milano. This design can adapt to a variety of spaces in your home.
