Artemide Tolomeo Basculante Floor Lamp

The Tolomeo Basculante floor lamp was designed by Michele de Lucchi & Giancarlo Fassina and has the perfect combination of function and contemporary aesthetic that makes this lamp a much needed piece. The floor lamp has two arms connected together by a spring mechanism so you can angles the light where you need with minimal effort. The lampshade is made with either silk satin fabric or parchment paper, producing a warm, diffused light that creates a welcoming atmosphere.

The flexibility of the Tolomeo Basculante floor light makes it perfect as a reading/task light in offices and lounges and the modern look make it an eye-catching lamp. Suitable for use in work spaces and homes, this floor light is universally versatile. Match this lamp with others from the Artemide Tolomeo collection to create a consistent lighting scheme throughout your interior.
