Verpan Fun 11DM Pendant

Designed by Verner Panton in 1964, the Verpan Fun 11DM Pendant forms part of the renowned Fun Collection, now regarded as one of Panton's most iconic achievements. Created to provide softly diffused illumination while enhancing colourful interiors, the design delivers both visual impact and atmospheric lighting. With its cascading seashell discs, the Verpan Fun 11DM Pendant adds a flamboyant presence to both domestic and commercial interiors, making a particularly impactful statement above a dining table, in a stairwell, or in an entrance hall.

The natural seashell material gently diffuses the light while showcasing the intricate detail of each disc. At the same time, the shells allow a generous level of illumination to shine through, making this suspended ceiling lamp both decorative and functional. Available in chrome and brass finishes, each option beautifully complements the natural character of the seashells and adds an elegant accent to any interior.
